

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1126 - SB 993

March 23, 2017

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits a court from ordering payment of retroactive child support for more than five years unless the court finds that the obligor deliberately avoided service or otherwise knowingly impeded or delayed the imposition of a support obligation.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Limiting the amount of retroactive child support that an obligor is required to pay will not significantly impact state or local operations.
- The Department of Human Services reports that it only enforces child support obligations after the obligation is ordered by the court. Changing the amount an obligor pays will not significantly impact their operations.
- The Administrative Office of the Courts and the District Attorneys General Conference report that the proposed legislation will not significantly impact their operations.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Krista M. Lee".

Krista M. Lee, Executive Director

/trm

HB 1126 - SB 993